

IMPERIAL WIZARD ASSAILS "HYPHENATED AMERICANISM" WILL TAKE "MA'S" CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT

KLONVOCATION ATTENDED BY 2000 KLAN MEMBERS

(By United Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 24.—Only matters of routine business was on today's program of the meeting of the members of the Ku Klux Klan here in their annual klonvocation. Utmost secrecy still prevailed about proceedings in the convention from which outsiders were barred.

Imperial Wizard Hiram W. Evans denied that any political expediency was followed in calling the klonvocation. But he did go so far as to say the Klan was "dead against" Senator Robert M. La Follette as a presidential candidate.

"The Klan always will strike directly at movements of intrigue such as La Follette and Wheeler are now making. La Follette is un-American," was the Imperial Wizard's verdict.

"Hyphenated Americanism" was assailed by Dr. Hiram Evans, Imperial wizard of the Klan in an address to 2,000 delegates to the annual Klan klonvocation in session here. The Klan has asked for restricted immigration legislation. "Klansmen and Klanswomen are the salt of the earth, upon which civilization depends," Evans said.

HIGHT SHOULD HANG CHICAGO PASTOR SAYS

(By United Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, former jockey and circuit rider minister of Ina, Ill., who confessed to killing his wife for the love of another woman should be hanged, Rev. R. Keen Ryan, pastor of the Congregational Church here, declared in an interview with the United Press today.

"In my opinion, Rev. Hight is sane. As far as his heart and mind are concerned, he is a race horse man and does not represent the clergy. He can not be said to represent the Methodist Church and Methodists should not be condemned, nor should they be down hearted because of this crime, which is more horrible than the Leopold-Loeb crime.

"Leopold and Loeb were youths and they killed a child. This man killed his wife and degraded the wife of another man.

"He should hang."

DRILLING STARTS AGAIN ON M'FALL TEST NORTHEAST

Drilling is understood to have been resumed on the McFall test, about 4 miles Northeast of Mexia. The test was drilled to a depth of something like 3600 feet, according to reports here, when a fishing job was encountered and owing to some difficulties the well stopped activity and for several months has been idle. The difficulties are understood to have been settled satisfactorily and Z. Gardner et al are said to be behind the operation at present. Drilling Contractor Blue was to go to fishing again today and will likely be able to complete the fishing job and go on down with the hole without much delay. Formations thus far encountered and gas showings are said to be very encouraging.

The test is Northeast of the producing area about four miles.

It was started down more than two years ago and has been watched with keen interest since interesting depth were reached.

Z. Gardner et al are drilling the Spright southeast of Mexia six miles which is reported fishing at around 3,000 feet.

The Roscoe Cook test heretofore known as the Mexia Giant, southeast about three miles, is drilling daytime only, cautiously going on down at a depth believed to be around 3500 feet.

FIRST STORY BY MEANS MAY BE TRUE SAYS WHEELER

By PAUL F. MALLON.
WITH SENATOR WHEELER, En Route to St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—Sensational rumors concerning the Means repudiation require that the Daugherty investigating committee re-open its hearings immediately. Senator Burton K. Wheeler, independent candidate for vice president announced today as he moved into Minnesota for a campaign through this favorable La Follette state.

"I believe that the first story told by Gaston B. Means against former Attorney General Daugherty on the witness stand will prove true," Wheeler declared.

"If Means has documentary evidence involving the highest government officials and the Republican National Committee these facts should be set before the people at once."

"Means and Daugherty should be called to the stand. Daugherty should be compelled to prove his charge that our witnesses were perjured. Means should be compelled to produce letters he claims to have which involve the most important men in our government in the plot surrounding his questionable repudiation of previous testimony."

Wheeler said he had communicated with Senator Brookhart, chairman of the committee and Senator Ashurst, Democratic member, urging that they call a session to hear the new evidence. A list of questions concerning Daugherty's personal finances while a government official, already has been prepared.

The candidate does not intend to cut into his scheduled tour to the Pacific coast, but he will use every means to have the investigation reopened without his presence.

Before his first exclusively farm audience, Wheeler charged in Davonport, Iowa last night that President Coolidge, favors special legislation for Mr. Mellons aluminum trust, of which Mr. Butler, now Chairman of the Republican National Committee has been the active lobbyist, and agent for a great many years," but has neglected the farmers.

"The reactionary Republicans joined with the reactionary democrats and prevented any farm legislation being passed last session," Wheeler said.

The candidate has speeches scheduled in St. Paul and Minneapolis before he strikes northward tonight in his private car for Duluth.

FLOOD WATERS ARE REPORTED RECEDING

(By United Press)
OCOW, Sept. 24.—Flood waters which inundated parts of Leningrad to a depth of ten feet when the Neva burst its banks were receding early today, leaving in their wake tangled wreckage, ruined dwellings and streets and a possibly heavy death toll.

Throughout the night rescue parties struggled in pitch darkness against the swirling floods, the city's electrical system being completely ruined.

A terrific storm sweeping the Gulf of Finland yesterday caused a great wall of sea water to enter the mouth of the Neva, which flows through the former Russian capital. The rivers artificial banks burst losing a wave which washed over the lower city, taking the inhabitants by surprise.

PISTOL SHOTS CREATE EXCITEMENT LAST NIGHT

Considerable excitement was caused in the downtown district last night when six pistol shots were fired in succession. Upon investigation it was revealed that the shooting was out of the stage door of the Opera House.

In the play which was going on at that time one of the actors came to the point where a revolver should be used, so in order not to frighten the audience with the loud reports of the gun, he fired out the rear door of the play house.

Big British Planes Will Carry Troops

LONDON, Sept. 24.—All steel air planes, equipped with 1,000-horsepower engines and capable of speeding 100 miles an hour, with fifty fully armed soldiers, are being built for the British army, according to reports which have leaked out of the Air Ministry. The first of the new troops carrying planes is expected to be ready for practical tests early next year.

The new planes are expected to eliminate the discomfort and hardship of forced marches and of difficult movement over enemy infested or arid country. Tip up seats are to be arranged in the fuselage of the new planes, and soldiers will travel in greater comfort than if they were making the journey by train. When not used for carrying troops, the seats can be turned up and the craft used for transporting supplies.

Air Ministry plans call for the construction of flying troop trains capable of carrying 200 or 300 soldiers, with equipment, in the not distant future.

Secretary J. W. Elliott of the Rotary Club has sent the following letter to all Rotarians in Mexia.

September 23rd, 1924.

Dear Rotarian:

It is useless to say that the Chairman of the Students' Loan Committee is very gratified over the response made to his request for subscription to this fund, and for your information will state that the sum of $366.00 has been raised for this fund since the recent campaign was inaugurated. However there were several absentees at our last meeting and when their subscriptions to this fund are received the fund will no doubt go over the $400.00 mark. The members of the Committee wish to express their thanks to the entire membership for this hearty response and co-operation in their undertaking.

The program for this week will be in charge of Doyle Harris, L. E. Beene and Bert Hollister. Bert is out of the city but we feel sure that Doyle and Elmer will have something worth while.

Our attendance record for last meeting was very low and we hope that this week's attendance will be much improved.

The following absentees were noted last week: Geo. Bell, Jesse Denning, Elch Elchison, Doyle Harris, Bert Hollister, Paul Harper, Joe Jeffers, Ike Keyes, Perier McKenzie, Ed Measles, Judge White, Jim Watson, Geo. Willis, Jack Womack, J. E. Baxter.

"The Democrats of Texas are facfirst for the State."

The Art of Beauty
By B. M. DOUGLAS
WOMEN OF CARTHAGE IN 700 B. C. HAD VANITY CASES AS WELL AS VANITY

THE fact that Dido, famous Queen of Carthage, doubtless added to her fatal attractiveness with artificial aids is suggested by the powders, rouges, vanity cases, and other beautifying paraphernalia dating back to 700
B. C. recently unearthed in Carthage by Count de Forok.

Judging by the variety of these articles the boudoir tables of the beauties of old Carthage apparently rivaled in interest and efficiency those of any girl of to-day. One can easily imagine the emotional Dido—pictured by Virgil as always aloof to the dramatic possibilities of an occasion—carefully applying whatever was the Carthaginian equivalent of the Mandarine rouge of to-day before casting herself upon the burning funeral pyre.

Some writers have advanced the theory that a contributing factor to the fall of Carthage was the extensive use of cosmetics at that time.

On the contrary, a study of history will show that a nation's civilization is marked by the use of cosmetics by its women, and not by their disuse. When the Roman Empire comprised almost all of the then known world, perfumes and cosmetics were used on a scale far surpassing that of to-day. On the other hand, during the Dark Ages when civilization was at a low ebb, the use of cosmetics was unknown.
Grace fell when its men became emasculated and its women neglected. All civilizations have been founded on the virility of their men and the beauty, charm, and grace of their women. The accounts of civilizations which have decayed show plainly that decay has been due to over-indulgence in eating and drinking and to weakening of their ethics. When women kept the home fires burning and made themselves beautiful and charming to welcome their returning conquering heroes they were rendering to their country the services which helped to make it great.

Beauty and good grooming of women are even more essential today when their attractiveness of appearance not only helps to sus-tain the morale of their husbands and friends of the masculine sex, but is a definite aid to the success for which they are themselves driving in society, or in business or professional life. Good powders not only keep the skin smooth and protect it against the elements, rightly used they make for cleanliness. Rouge means more than a becoming glow. It is a little red box of courage which spells health and youth and energy.

girl and after many thrilling and laughable experiences successfully es-a five weeks engagement at the derful success here. Every play they

Marlin District Teams Jockeying For 1924 Games

(From Marlin Democrat)
Football teams in the district to which Marlin High school has been assigned are jockeying for position, making is extremely difficult for J. M. Wilson, business manager for Bulldog activities, to complete his schedule. Aside from Mexia for October 17, and Bartlett, tentatively, for October 10, the Bulldogs cannot find any other team interested in playing, and it may be necessary to appeal to Roy Henderson, director of the Texas interscholastic league, to force some of the other eleven in the district to tackle the Bulldog. Belton is exceedingly averse to meeting Marlin, even on the former's ground. Heine Weir's Itasca outfit feels the same way about it. Weir figures that Marlin, Belton, Mexia and Itasca are the four strongest teams in the district. And he would have Marlin play Belton and Itasca play Mexia in the belief that the later is the weakest club. He didn't say so much, but that's his idea, anyway. However, Weir is due for a rude awakening. Mexia has a strong squad in charge of Coach Poteet, and is really much more to be feared than Belton.

In the meantime, the Bulldogs are now entering on the first stages of their intensive training. The work of Cuffy Lenoir in sticking to the grind is inspiring the whole outfit. Whether hitting the dummy, tackling, practicing formations, running signals, or scrimmage, Lenoir is always found in the vanguard and seems to be putting forth a wholehearted effort to come through. Lenoir is the best interference runner the Bulldogs boast and his willingness to use this talent in demonstrating plays is proving of much assistance to Coach Mayhew.

SPORTLIGHTS
Sewanee opened its season last Saturday at home by defeating the Transylvania eleven by the score of 27 to 0. After playing their first three preliminary games at home with Transylvania, Southwestern Presbyterian and Carson-Newman, in order, they come to Texas for their first big game. That is their clash with the Texas Aggies at Dallas on Oct. 11.
Sewanee has certainly won the reputation of being the traveling Tigers. After meeting A. & M. at Dallas, they play Alabama at Birmingham, Kentucky at Lexington, Oglethorpe at Atlanta, Mississippi at Memphis, South Carolina at Columbia and Vanderbilt at Nashville. Six separate southern states at weak intervals. Some job for the railroads.
The Texas Aggies led the Southwestern Conference teams in opening the season by defeating John Tarleton at College Station last Saturday 40 to 0. Coach D. X. Bible has been wearing a long face all season, seems to be worried about getting his squad into first class running order by the time of the Tigers visit.
The Aggies meet Trinity at College Station next Saturday. Trinity promises to loom big on the horizon this season.
The Texas Longhorns will not meet Southwestern Wednesday, Sept. 24, as was announced on their schedule several weeks ago. But will open their season by playing the Pirates Saturday.

Speaking of individual players, Joe Potter, the field general of the Westminster squad is one of the best quarters in Junior College football.
Elmore Angel, the 200 pound center for the Wildcats has been a star on several gridirons before coming to the college on the hill. He is in good condition and there is no reason for him not having the best year of his career.
Coach Poteet is putting the final touches on the High School squad, they have had some good coaching and a two weeks start on most of their opponents.
The Coach of the Cooledge squad has been asked for a report on his team but so far has not made a reply, wonder what he has in store for our Black Cats.

Friday is the opening of the season for Mexia, let us make it a record game for the Black Cats. They have a team that is going to be hard to beat, and are meeting some mighty good opponents. The game starts at 8:45.
The coaches at the S. M. U. camp are all getting grey headed trying to find someone to fill the center position. Wilton Daniels, Captain to the Southwestern champions of last season was too frail to play in most of the games, and his place was filled by Buddy King. Now they are both gone, losing an active player and a fine leader.
J. Sandford Smith left Tuesday morning for a trip through Western Texas on business.

Labor is the parent of capital and creator of values. The thrift and industry of the people of a community are the sure foundations of prosperity and happiness.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING

The football season, or the athletic season of Limestone County School, gets under way in Mexia Friday and Saturday of this week. Fans are eager for the opening games at Nowlin Park School and College spirit are rising. The squads are training. Clean sport will be the order of the season.

The games so far as their real purpose is concerned, are meetings of growing and developing youth, to demonstrate the ideal way in which contestants should deport themselves one toward another in a struggle of brain, body and spirit. All of these count. As Charlie Clover says: "Deef don't always win sporting contests." The spirit in which the game is played, by the participant and follower, has much to do, then brains come next. It is true that physical perfection is a great factor. Boys who would play the game successfully must keep their bodies clean, their lives pure and their habits above reproach.

A high moral code is acquired quite naturally by the playing of games, a code which so permeates the athletes' consciousness that it extends not only to his behavior on the playing field but governs every act in private life. Surely if this is so, then adequate support should be accorded upon the part of the public, as the movement may be compared with any moral movement of modern times.

That sports have become a very important phase of American life is shown very aptly in the manner in which Americans apply sporting terms to express their moral standards. It is not the use of slang, whatever, but merely the use of sporting terms that have a real meaning, when one hears "Play the game," "Hold that line," "Stay in there, boy," and other similar phrases.

Two things that are recognized as fostering the sporting ideal are: the public opinion, which governs the conduct of the particular contest, not merely its rules but the manner in which it is played and secondly, the human desire to excel or win.

The football player must keep his temper. The public demands this. He must take his medicine, take a beating and a referee's decision in the right way, shake hands with his opponent with all that this action implies—whether for the sake of the team or the community or state. The desire to excel forces a youth to keep his body clean, his life pure and to acquire a pluck that enables him to make his decisions quickly and accurately.

The result is a sound moral training, and a sound moral training in precisely those qualities which are of service to the community. It entails the sacrifice of personal inclinations and interest—whether for the sake of the team, the community or the nation—a sacrifice for the lack of which democracy after democracy has perished in the past, and the true meaning of which the democracies of the present must learn if they are not, in the turn, to perish.

What results, then in this direction, are to be attained this year depends upon the teams and their coaches. The Mexia High School, coached by Ernest H. Poteet and Westminster College, coached by C. L. Lewis, are indeed fortunate in having such splendid gentlemen directing the training of students on the field of sport. They know that the proof of the pudding is in the eating and every effort will be made to measure up to standards and to develop young fellows who will be impressed constantly with the fact that "When the great scorer comes to write across our names he will not write whether we won or lost but how we played the game."

THE MEXIA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Among other worthy institutions Mexia has a Public Library. Its value to the community depends upon the support of the local citizenship to those policies that have been found to be inseparably linked with a successful library.

Here are some questions which should be considered by the Mexia citizenship in this connection:

- 1. Is the library reaching a greater number of its possible constituents? Is its roll of active borrowers increasing?
- 2. Is the average borrower using an increasing number of books each year?
- 3. Is the average borrower using the library for an enlarging range of book needs and interests? Is the library meeting the needs at a greater number of points?
- 4. Is the library meeting a higher order of needs and wants?
- 5. Is the library rendering an increased service in answering questions, providing definite information and supplying material for study or help in the actual problems of life?
- 6. Is it becoming an object of increasing pride and affection in the community?
- 7. Is there a growing appreciation of the importance and needs of skilled library service?

Mrs. Charles Alderman, the efficient librarian here, will deeply appreciate the earnest consideration on the part of the public of these questions that have been suggested for the citizens of the United States by the American Library Association.

The Bnai B'rith Me Senegal, a Jewish publication, recently made a strong appeal to the Jews to retain that "vitality" that "steadfastly" has enabled them, as Theodore Roosevelt once said to sweep down through the ocean of time like the old steam locomotive by the vapors of surrounding water, that racial trait that has caused them to resist down through the ages, in the most efficient forms of assimilation. It is not of course that the Jewish publication was a bit of a Jewish viewpoint should come out. It is not of course the continuation of a policy that has prevailed in the past, in that a Jewish viewpoint should come out. It is not of course a religious or political issue but is merely keeping the faith of the fathers.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

THE DIRECT PRIMARY
(From the Waco Times-Herald.)
The esteemed Houston Post-Dispatch has this discussion:
"The 'steamroller' tactics adopted at Austin were more amusing than impressive. It was merely following what has become a custom in Texas since the primary election system went into effect. Majorities not only ignore all minority rights in such conventions, but even go so far as to expel duly chosen delegates, or the committeemen selected by such districts as may be controlled by minority delegates. No genuinely representative convention would dare to trifle with the prerogative of the minority in this manner. Had such been attempted in New York, the party would have been split and all hopes of a democratic victory gone. But in a convention following a primary election, deprived of all authority that invests such a body with importance, where most of the proceedings may be designated as powwow and fashion, no harm is done. It is merely the victors having the losers in a one-party State. Don't attach too much importance to it."
The primary election system is a reversal of the whole order of correct political procedure. It diverts the people of the right of control. It is a direct contribution to unwholesome methods. It is the greatest piece of humbug ever foisted on a free people. It will require a political upheaval to get rid of it, for it is the delight of the professional politician.

Ladies Missionary Society Meets At Methodist Parsonage

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church held its monthly social meeting Monday afternoon at the church parsonage, with Mrs. W. B. Andrews, Mrs. Ben Smith and Mrs. Roy Johanson as hostesses.

The members present were glad to have with them quite a number of visitors and new members.

Mrs. John Sweet led a very interesting lesson on Africa. After the devotional services, verses of scripture were repeated on the subject of "Giving."

Mrs. Robert Lewis led the round table discussion on "Flash lights from Africa," with Miss Tarbox, Stevens, Smith, Corley, Hayter, Smith, Watkins and Misses Khaul and Ward assisting.

Mrs. George Peyton and Roy Johanson gave a beautiful vocal duet, with Mrs. Sam Werner, accompanist.

Miss Sam Cox told of the thrilling experiences of missionaries in Africa. Mrs. Wyatt Hayter rendered a beautiful piano solo.

Miss Phone Ward gave a report on the two native missionaries which the First Methodist church of Mexia supports in Africa.

After being entertained by this instructive program, delightful refreshments of assorted sandwiches, hot tea and mint were served.

MY BEAUTY

Is All Due to Beauty Helps.

By Edna Wallace Hopper
I was a plain girl with little distinction. I made myself a famous beauty. Now, after 35 years as a slave girl, I remain a beauty still. Ten thousands who see me daily on the streets know that I look 19.

When I was a girl, my rich mother took me on a world search for the supreme beauty help. Those helps made me famous. Since then I have kept in touch with every new discovery. I have made many trips to France. So what I want and what I am are due to scientific Photo 1921 help.

Now women have convinced me that I should share these helps with others. Millions of girls and women wait what I have gained. So I have combined all the helps I have discovered in four preparations, with 52 ingredients. And I have arranged so that all druggists and toilet counters offer them to all who wish.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth Lint. I tell you what it did. Now great beauty experts the world over are advising this formula. No other cleanser which man has discovered does what this cleanser does.

My Facial Youth contains no animal or vegetable fat. It cannot in any way assimilate with the skin. It simply cleans to the depths, then deposits. All the grime, dirt, skin and clinging matter comes out with it. That is the first beauty essential—an utterly clean skin. But I never dreamed what a clean skin meant until I found this Facial Youth.

Now Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. The cost is 75c.

Write me for my Beauty Book and I'll send it with it something to please you. Edna Wallace Hopper, 516 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago—(Adv.)

TEACHERS FAVOR COUNTY AGENT AND DEMONSTRATOR

RESOLUTIONS ARE PASSED UPON WITH FAVOR AT MEET

The Limestone County Teachers who assembled in their annual institute at Groesbeck early in this month went on record as being in favor of a county demonstration agent and County Farm agent, if the appointment of such could be found feasible by the Commissioners' Court.

Representing more than one hundred schools in all parts of Limestone County, their resolution in that regard will likely prove very helpful to the County Court in making its decision in regard to the matter.

Eight various subjects were mentioned in the resolutions, which were unanimously adopted as submitted as follows:

1. That we publicly offer our thanks to the Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, and Ad Club, together with all other organizations and the citizens of Groesbeck who have so kindly contributed toward making our stay here pleasant, entertaining and profitable.
2. That we express our most sincere appreciation to Mr. Woodson for the efficient manner in which he has conducted this institute, and for the most beneficial lectures he has delivered. Also, we are indebted to Mr. Doucens, Miss Gordon, and Miss Patrick for their untiring efforts in giving such valuable instruction which have been so largely responsible for the great success of this institute.
3. That we are grateful to Reverend Travis for his inspiring messages as well as all others who made the program more interesting, enjoyable, and helpful, either by an address or musical selection.
4. That we heartily commend Mrs. Ferguson and the executive committee in providing such high class instruction and entertainment for the program.
5. That we unreservedly urge ever, teacher to affiliate them selves with and to locally support the Texas State Teachers Association and the Limestone County Educational Association. Furthermore we recommend active participation on the part of all the schools to the limit of their capacity in the Interscholastic League contests;

6. That each and every teacher in Limestone County should acquaint themselves fully with the results and recommendations in the report of the recent survey made of Texas schools, and avail themselves of all opportunities to inform the public concerning the condition of our schools;

7. That copies of these resolutions be furnished the county Superintendent and the leading newspapers of the county for publication.

8. That the architect's assignment of offices in the new courthouse call for the placing of the county superintendent's office in the basement of the building, where the lighting and ventilation are bad, and dampness will exist, causing free textbooks stored there to mold, and Whereas, this office will probably be visited by more women than all the other offices put together, and is now occupied by a woman, therefore

Be it resolved that as a matter of consideration for the women of Limestone county, the teachers here assembled respectfully urge the Commissioners' Court to assign the county superintendent an office which will be free from the aforementioned objections.

Resolved, that the Limestone County Teachers Institute go on record as being in favor of a county demonstrator and county farm agent if the appointment of such be found feasible by the Commissioners' Court.

Respectfully submitted by the committee.

ALL DAY SERVICE HELD SUNDAY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HERE; NEXT SUNDAY TO BE VICTORY DAY

From early Sunday morning until late Sunday night there were continual services. The total number present at Sunday School was 418.

At the preaching hour great stress was put on the Synod, which will meet here October 8-13. Numbers of families indicated that they were willing and anxious to do all within their power to entertain the Synod in a very hospitable way.

After the pastor's sermon on consecration, about one hundred volunteered their services to assist in taking a religious census of Mexia. After this, there were three professions and two who united with the Church by letter. A lunch was served at the Church for all census takers. After the lunch Mr. Harper, who had charge of taking the census, gave instructions to all taking part. A number stayed at the Church and tabulated the reports as they came in.

At the evening service an Echo Service was held. A number expressed their surprise at the great opportunity for evangelistic and enlistment work in Mexia. The possibilities for the Baptist Church now total over 2,000. Some expressed their deep conviction that we should all "Arise and go after the unsaved and unenlisted. Mrs. Paul B. Harper made a very earnest plea for the salvation and enlistment of the young people of Mexia. Mrs. J. E. Bolton stated that her heart was burdened to see such a large number of unenlisted Baptists. The pastor then made a very earnest plea for the Church to launch out into the deep for a victorious program for our Church, and the glory of our Saviour.

Two beautiful musical numbers were rendered. Mr. F. C. Scott rendered Johnson's "Face to Face," a beautiful Saxophone solo. Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Harper sang with deep emotion "It Pays to Serve Jesus." At the close of the service three came forward, trusting Christ as their Saviour, and three others to unite with the Church by letter.

At both services the Pastor urged all of his people to attend the evangelistic services now being held at the First Christian Church.

Next Sunday will be Victory Day at the Baptist Church, and a great program is being arranged. We are planning for 600 in Sunday School. Watch for the program in the best paper in Texas.—The Mexia Evening News.

Longer Life
for Your Motor ~

Proper lubrication, more than anything else, governs the service life of your motor. Whether your car serves you for one year or for ten years, depends to a great extent on the quality, grade, and amount of oil you put into the crank case. The average life of a car is from three to seven years. You can make yours last longer and keep repair bills and part replacements to a minimum by using the right grade of Humble Motor Oil, and by draining and refilling your crank case every 500 miles.

D. S. S. PRESENTATION AT KANSAS CITY, MO.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 23.—Presentation of the D. S. C. to Luther Kuhl, World War veteran was to be the principal event on today's program of the Reserve Officers Association Convention here. Golf and polo matches as well as pistol shooting were included in the day's events.

At the Limestone County teachers Institute in Groesbeck, Mrs. Maud W. Gordon superintended the studies in intermediate work. TEXAS ASSOCIATION MEETING CALLED IN MEXIA SUNDAY

MANY IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO COME BEFORE SESSION

Telegrams were set out by A. B. Johnson, of Marlin, President of the Texas Association, calling a meeting of officials of the six clubs comprising the league to be held at Mexia next Sunday.

Many important questions are to be brought before the body, it is understood.

This is President Johnson's first year as President and he has the cooperation, support and sympathy of citizens throughout the circuit, according to friends and fans here.

A meeting was called last Sunday at Waco but owing to the absence of several officials of the various clubs, it had to be postponed. These were out of the state and presumably have returned, since the call was issued this morning.

The teams of the League are Austin, Waco, Marlin, Corsicana, Temple and Mexia. Representatives will be here from all points.

The telegram calling the meeting is as follows:

Marlin, Tex., 9:15 a. m. Sept. 21. DAILY NEWS.

A meeting of the Texas Association to be held at Mexia Sunday morning, September 29, at eleven o'clock. Was called today by A. B. Johnson, president of the league.

A. B. JOHNSON.

Fights and Fighters

NEW YORK—Frankie Genaro, American flyweight champion, won the decision over Bushy Graham in a 12 round bout at Henderson Bowl in Brooklyn. Graham was smacked to the canvas twice during the session.

NEWARK, N. J.—Ad Stone, Philadelphia Marine, has been made a slight favorite in the betting for his go tonight with Young Stribling.

AURORA, Ill.—Eddie "Kid" Wagner of Philadelphia and Mako Dundee of Rock Island contenders for the junior lightweight championship will meet here tonight in a 12-round battle.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Limestone County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Harry Young and wife, Sarah E. Young, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Limestone County 87th Judicial District, to be held at the courthouse thereof in Groesbeck, on the first Monday in November, 1936, the same being the 3rd day of November, 1936, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 4th day of August, A.D., 1936, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 4701-B, wherein Eliga Carter is plaintiff, and Harry Young and Sarah E. Young are defendants, said petition alleging that heretofore to wit on or about the first day of September 1932, the Defendants made, executed and delivered to plaintiff their joint promissory note for the sum of Fifteen Hundred Thirty and Forty Eight Hundredths Dollars ($1530.48) due and payable in monthly installments of Twenty five ($25.) Dollars each, the first installment being due and payable on or before the first day of October, 1932, and one installment to become due and payable on or before the first day of each succeeding month thereafter until the whole principal sum and interest is paid; said note being payable to the order of the plaintiff at the rate of 10% per annum from date until paid, and stipulating for 10% of the amount of the principal and interest then due as attorney's fees in case suit is brought on same or is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, whereby the Defendants and each of them became bound and liable to pay and promise to pay to plaintiff the sum of money in said note specified, together with all interest and attorney's fees due thereon according to the tenor and effect thereof.

Said note was given for a part of the purchase money of the following described real estate and premises situated in the city of Mexia, Limestone County, Texas, to-wit:

Lot 3 in subdivision A in Division 41, as shown by the Recorded Map of the City of Mexia, Texas.

That said property was heretofore to-wit on the first day of September, 1932, conveyed by plaintiff to Defendants by his deed of writing of that date, in consideration, among other things, of the note herein described, and that in said deed of conveyance a lien was reserved thereon to secure the payment of said note, that said note and the installments thereon are due and unpaid, the last installment amounting to Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars having been paid on or about June 1st, 1932, and no other payments or installments have been made since that time by the Defendants or either of them, or by any one on their behalf, the often requested so to make such payments.

The said note has been placed in the hands of W. T. Church, attorney, for collection, and plaintiff has contracted to pay him 10% attorney's fees stipulated therein, the same being the reasonable and usual and customary fee.

Wherefore, the plaintiff prays the court that the Defendants and each of them be cited to appear and answer this petition, that he have judgment for his debt, interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit, and for the foreclosure of his lien on the above described land and premises, and the same be decreed to be sold according to law; that the sheriff or other officer executing said order of sale, shall place under said order of sale in possession thereof, within thirty (30) days after the day of the sale and for such other and further relief special and general, in law and in equity, that he may be justly entitled to, etc.

Herein fall not, but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness Johnson Wakefield, Clerk of the District Court of Limestone County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, in the city of Groesbeck, this 9 day of Sept., A. D. 1936.

What They Said Was Not Printable

(By United Press)
AMARILLO, Sept. 24.—It is all right for picknickers to eat their lunch around a campfire, but when it comes to wheeling the blaze into a newly constructed school building—it is too much.

Pleasure seekers located the Soney school house near here as their site to eat. Light was furnished by loading a steel wheel barrow with building waste and firing it in the middle of the room.

CRIPPLED GIANTS FEEL CERTAIN OF SUCCESS IN RACE

(By United Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Crippled and torn from their hardest fight in four years, New York Giants have reached the point where they seem reasonably certain of winning the National League pennant.
It was plainly apparent in the actions of the Pittsburgh Pirates at the Polo Grounds yesterday that they felt the same way about it and that it didn't seem to make much difference what happened to them.
Jimmy O'Connell knocked in two runs with his first homer of the season and Rabbit Maranville who played erratically in the Brooklyn series, heaved a wild one to the plate and presented the Giants with some more runs.
The Giants increased their lead over the Brooklyn Robins to a little more than a full game while the Robins were beating the runners up, Dizzy Vance, greatest pitcher of the year, lost a tough one. He allowed only four hits in ten innings, but he threw three home run balls and blew the game.
With the Giants ahead of the Robins and two and a half games in front of the Pirates, the champions have an easier way now to a new baseball record of four pennants in succession. Frisch, Groh and Meusel, three regulars, are out of the lineup but McGraw has so many capable reserves that they may not be missed. Lindstorm and O'Connell, two substitutes practically won the game when they got the first two hits off Meadows yesterday and scored two runs which were enough to win the game.
The Giants have five more games to play, the Robins have three and the Pirates seven. If the Giants win four out of their five remaining games they will win the pennant even if the Robins win their three games. The Pirates would have to win their seven games to finish in a tie if the champions win three out of their five games.
The Senators and the Yankees won their games yesterday and the situation remained unchanged in the American League with the Washington club leading by two full games.

2,000 Baptists In Mexia Census Taken
Last Sunday Shows

According to Paul B. Harper, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church here, the results of the religious census taken of the Mexia community Sunday, by teams that went out from the church immediately after noon, indicated that there are 2,000 men, women and children in this city with Baptist inclinations, in the church and out. The membership of the church now is over 800. This means he says, that there are 1200 other Baptists in town and a vigorous campaign will be put on immediately to line these people up with those on the rolls already, making this one of the strongest churches in the state.

World Disarmament
Aided By Germany
In Entering L. N.

(By United Press)
GENEVA, Sept. 24.—The cause of world disarmament under the auspices of the League of Nations has been immeasurably advanced by Germany's decision to enter the League at an early date, leaders of all delegates, including even the French, declared today.
The moment was most opportune, League spokesmen said.
Inclusion of the late enemy in the general arbitration-security-disarmament pact now being prepared will increase immensely the chances for its success, it is felt.

Collections being made by local banks indicate a desire on the part of the farmers to liquidate their indebtedness and a healthy condition is apparent, in spite of the fact that everyone now concedes the 1924 cotton yield somewhat less than that gathered last year. The price, too is less than was being paid for the staple at this date 1923. Many farmers who are able to do so are holding a part of their crop, believing that an upward trend will come about the first of the year in the face of a thirteen-million bale crop and a very small surplus carried over.

KLONVOCATION ATTENDED BY 2000 KLAN MEMBERS

(By United Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 24.—Only matters of routine business was on today's program of the meeting of the members of the Ku Klux Klan here in their annual klonvocation. Utmost secrecy still prevailed about proceedings in the convention from which outsiders were barred. Imperial Wizard Hiram W. Evans derided that any political expediency was followed in calling the klonvocation. But he did go so far as to say the Klan was "dead against" Senator Robert M. La Follette as a presidential candidate. "The Klan always will strike directly at movements of intrigue such as La Follette and Wheeler are now making. La Follette is un-American," was the Imperial Wizard's verdict. "Hyphenated Americanism" was assailed by Dr. Hiram Evans, imperial wizard of the Klan in an address to 2,000 delegates to the annual Klan klonvocation in session here. The Klan has asked for restricted immigration legislation. "Klansmen and Klanswomen are the salt of the earth, upon which civilization depends," Evans said.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, former jockey and circuit rider minister of Ina, Ill., who confessed to killing his wife for the love of another woman, should be hanged, Rev. R. Keen Ryan, pastor of the Congregational Church here, declared in an interview with the United Press today.

"In my opinion, Rev. Hight is sane. As far as his heart and mind are concerned, he is a race horse man and does not represent the clergy. He can not be said to represent the Methodist Church and Methodists should not be condemned, nor should they be down hearted because of this crime, which is more horrible than the Leopold-Loeb crime."

"Leopold and Loeb were youths and they killed a child. This man killed his wife and degraded the wife of another man."

"He should hang."

Nothing Is More Potent Than God's Word Says Vawter

"Talk about death bed stories, and tears," said Evangelist Vawter in his sermon at the First Christian church last night. "There is nothing so potent as the Word of God in causing men to confess Christ. The Book declares that if we do not confess before men, with the mouth, that Jesus is the Christ, that we will be damned. You are not going to be saved or lost or something else. You are going to be saved. You are not going to heaven or hell or somewhere else. You are going to heaven or hell. Jesus might have been the world's greatest artist, but among the thousands of great paintings in the world's great art galleries there is not one to which He ever touched a brush. He might have been the world's greatest inventor, for John tells us that He made all things, and without Him was not anything made that was made. Jesus came as the world's Saviour and as the world's Savior only."

FLOOD WATERS ARE REPORTED RECEDING

(By United Press)
OCOW, Sept. 24.—Flood waters which inundated parts of Leningrad to a depth of ten feet when the Neva burst its banks were receding early today, leaving in their wake tangled wreckage, ruined dwellings and streets and a possibly heavy death toll.

Throughout the night rescue parties struggled in pitch darkness against the swirling floods, the city's electrical system being completely ruined.

A terrific storm sweeping the Gulf of Finland yesterday caused a great wall of sea water to enter the mouth of the Neva, which flows through the former Russian capital. The rivers artificial banks burst localing a wave which washed over the lower city, taking the inhabitants by surprise.

PISTOL SHOTS CREATE EXCITEMENT LAST NIGHT

Considerable excitement was caused in the downtown district last night when six pistol shots were fired in succession. Upon investigation it was revealed that the shooting was out of the stage door of the Opera House.

In the play which was going on at that time one of the actors came to the point where a revolver should be used, so in order not to frighten the audience with the loud reports of the gun, he fired out the rear door of the play house.

DRILLING STARTS AGAIN ON M'FALL TEST NORTHEAST

Drilling is understood to have been resumed on the McFall test, about 4 miles Northeast of Mexia. The test was drilled to a depth of something like 3600 feet, according to reports here, when a fishing job was encountered and owing to some difficulties the well stopped activity and for several months has been idle. The difficulties are understood to have been settled satisfactorily and Z. Gardner et al are said to be behind the operation at present. Drilling Contractor Blue was to go to fishing again today and will likely be able to complete the fishing job and go on down with the hole without much delay. Formations thus far encountered and gas showings are said to be very encouraging.

The test is Northeast of the producing area about four miles. It was started down more than two years ago and has been watched with keen interest since interesting depth were reached.

Z. Gardner et al are drilling the Speight southeast of Mexia six miles which is reported fishing at around 3,000 feet.

The Roscoe Cook test heretofore known as the Mexia Giant, southeast about three miles, is drilling daytime only, cautiously going on down at a depth believed to be around 3500 feet.

FIRST STORY BY MEANS MAY BE TRUE SAYS WHEELER

By PAUL F. MALLON.
WITH SENATOR WHEELER, En Route to St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 24.—Sensational rumors concerning the Means repudiation require that the Daugherty investigating committee re-open its hearings immediately. Senator Burton K. Wheeler, independent candidate for vice president announced today as he moved into Minnesota for a campaign through this favorable La Follette state. "I believe that the first story told by Gaston B. Means against former Attorney General Daugherty on the witness stand will prove true," Wheeler declared.

"If Means has documentary evidence involving the highest government officials and the Republican National Committee then these facts should be set before the people at once."

Means should be compelled to produce letters he claims to have which involve the most important men in our government in the plot surrounding his questionable repudiation of previous testimony."

Wheeler said he had communicated with Senator Brookhart, chairman of the committee and Senator Ashurst, Democratic member, urging that they call a session to hear the new evidence. A list of questions concerning Daugherty's personal finances while a government official, already has been prepared.

The candidate does not intend to cut into his scheduled tour to the Pacific coast, but he will use every means to have the investigation reopened without his presence.

Before his first exclusively farm audience, Wheeler charged in Davonport, Iowa last night that President Coolidge, favors special legislation for Mr. Mellons aluminum trust, of which Mr. Butler, now Chairman of the Republican National Committee has been the active lobbyist, and agent for a great many years, but has neglected the farmers.

"The reactionary Republicans joined with the reactionary democrats and prevented any farm legislation being passed last session," Wheeler said.

The candidate has speeches scheduled in St. Paul and Minneapolis before he strikes northward tonight in his private car for Duluth.

Big British Planes Will Carry Troops

LONDON, Sept. 24.—All steel air planes, equipped with 1,000-horsepower engines and capable of speeding 100 miles an hour, with fifty fully armed soldiers, are being built for the British army, according to reports which have leaked out of the Air Ministry. The first of the new troops carrying planes is expected to be ready for practical tests early next year.

The new planes are expected to eliminate the discomfort and hardship of forced marches and of difficult movement over enemy infested or arid country. Tip up seats are to be arranged in the fuselage of the new planes, and soldiers will travel in greater comfort than if they were making the journey by train. When not used for carrying troops, the seats can be turned up and the craft used for transporting supplies.

Air Ministry plans call for the construction of flying troop trains capable of carrying 200 or 300 soldiers, with equipment, in the not distant future.

A posed picture of the girl and the pastor was found in the latter's possession, but he was unable to identify it or explain its presence.

Secretary J. W. Elliott of the Rotary Club has sent the following letter to all Rotarians in Mexia.

September 23rd, 1924.

Dear Rotarian:

It is useless to say that the Chairman of the Students' Loan Committee is very gratified over the response made to his request for subscription to this fund, and for your information will state that the sum of $365.00 has been raised for this fund since the recent campaign was inaugurated. However there were several absentees at our last meeting and when their subscriptions to this fund are received the fund will no doubt go over the $400.00 mark. The members of the Committee wish to express their thanks to the entire membership for this hearty response and co-operation in their undertaking.

The program for this week will be in charge of Doyle Harris, L. E. Beene and Bert Hollister. Bert is out of the city but we feel sure that Doyle and Elmer will have something worth while.

LITTLE VILLAGE STUNNED WITH REGRETTABLE TRAGEDY

INA, Ills., Sept. 24.—This little village of 400 is stunned today by the amazing tragedy involving its Methodist minister and its most beautiful woman. There is a mixture of sorrow, pity and anger.

Sorrow for a woman, respected and popular for many years as a dutiful wife and mother who poisoned her husband for love of her pastor. Anger for the man, Rev. Lawrence Hight, Methodist Episcopal circuit rider pastor who poisoned his wife for love of the woman, Mrs. Elsie Sweeten, on's all branded with the indelible stigma of the murders of their family.

Elsie Sweeten, handsome 34 year old widow of Wilford Sweeten, whom she poisoned with arsenic last July was much liked and respected. Her disposition was "nice." She was a good church member, a good mother, a perfect neighbor.

Now, having confessed the murders and giving their love for each other as the motive, the woman is being held in jail at Salem, 20 miles north of here and the man at Nashville, in the county west of here to be returned probably October 13, when the Jefferson county grand jury will indict them for first degree murder.

Rev. Hight may plead guilty of insanity. The intention of the woman is not known. Neither has any financial resources.

"Now I am ready for the gallows," Rev. Hight said just before county authorities spirited him and Elsie away in automobiles fearing violence by citizens.

Mrs. Sweeten in her confession blamed the pastor for suggesting that she poison her husband, said he obtained the arsenic which she put in chocolate drops, oatmeal and tomato soup for her sick husband to eat.

Rev. Hight a follower of horse races in his early days and said to have been converted to religion and brought into the service of the church by his wife, has three children, a grown son who lives here and two daughters of high school age.

Both daughters visited him before his confession and expressed confidence in his innocence. Today they are homeless and dependent upon their brother.

The four children of the Sweetens, ranging from six to 14 years of age, are being cared for by the murdered man's parents.

M. H. Wolfe For Butte.

M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, former chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee and leader of the prohibition forces of Texas in 1918, in a statement Monday endorsed Dr. Butte and his platform for Governor.

"The Democrats of Texas are facing two serious obligations, one loyalty to the State and its best interests and the other to the party," he declared, adding: "I believe that in the final analysis we should stand first for the State."

Mr. Wolfe explained that at present he was not "in politics," and that he was not committed to the support of either Dr. Butte or Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, the Democratic nominee.

"I am very proud of Dr. Butte," he declared, "and I have looked into his record and find it worthy of consideration of all the voters in the State, and to the party it becomes the inalienable right and duty of the citizens of Texas to vote as their consciences dictate."

The Art of Beauty

By B. M. DOUGLAS

WOMEN OF CARTHAGE IN 700 B. C. HAD VANITY CASES AS WELL AS VANITY.

THE fact that Dido, famous Queen of Carthage, doubtless added to her fatal attractiveness with artificial aids is suggested by the powders, rouges, vanity cases, and other beautifying paraphernalia dating back to 700 B. C. recently unearthed in Carthage by Count de Prorok.

Judging by the variety of these articles the boudoir tables of the beauties of old Carthage apparently rivaled in interest and efficiency those of any girl of to-day. One can easily imagine the emotional Dido—pictured by Virgil as always alert to the dramatic possibilities of an occasion—carefully applying whatever was the Carthaginian equivalent of the Mandarin rouge of to-day before casting herself upon the burning funeral pyre.

Some writers have advanced the theory that a contributing factor to the fall of Carthage was the extensive use of cosmetics at that time.

On the contrary, a study of history will show that a nation's civilization is marked by the use of cosmetics by its women, and not by their disuse. When the Roman Empire comprised almost all of the then known world, perfumes and cosmetics were used on a scale far surpassing that of to-day. On the other hand, during the Dark Ages when civilization was at a low ebb, the use of cosmetics was unknown.

Greece fell when its men became emasculated and its women neglected. All civilizations have been founded on the virility of their men and the beauty, charm, and grace of their women. The accounts of civilizations which have decayed show plainly that decay has been due to over-indulgence in eating and drinking and to weakening of their ethics. When women kept the home fires burning and made themselves beautiful and charming to welcome their returning conquering heroes they were rendering to their country the services which helped to make it great.

Beauty and good grooming of women are even more essential today when their attractiveness of appearance not only helps to sustain the morale of their husbands and friends of the masculine sex, but is a definite aid to the success for which they are themselves striving in society, or in business or professional life. Good powders not only keep the skin smooth and protect it against the elements; rightly used they make for cleanliness. Rouge means more than a becoming glow. It is a little red box of courage which spurs health and youth and energy.

Wednesday Is Last Night of "The Broken Wing" at Opera House

"The Broken Wing" being presented at the Opera House by the Edna Park Players makes its last appearance Wednesday night. This is a real exciting story of love and adventure, well played.

An American aviator is wrecked in Mexico, and is held for ransom by a Mexican General. He falls in love with a beautiful little Mexican girl and after many thrilling and laughable experiences successfully escapes with his bride back to the States.

The Edna Park players are here for a five weeks engagement at the Opera House and have met with wonderful success here. Every play they have presented has been a good, clean wholesome play. They change program every Monday and Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Horn returned Tuesday night from a brief visit to Fort Worth and Dallas.

Marlin District Teams Jockeying For 1924 Games

(From Marlin Democrat)

Football teams in the district to which Marlin High school has been assigned are jockeying for position, making is extremely difficult for J. M. Wilson, business manager for Bulldog activities, to complete his schedule. Aside from Mexia for October 17, and Bartlett, tentatively, for October 10, the Bulldogs cannot find any other team interested in playing, and it may be necessary to appeal to Roy Henderson, director of the Texas interscholastic league, to force some of the other elevens in the district to tackle the Bulldog. Belton is exceedingly averse to meeting Marlin, even on the former's ground. Heinie Weir's Itasca outfit feels the same way about it.

Weir figures that Marlin, Belton, Mexia and Itasca are the four strongest teams in the district. And he would have Marlin play Belton and Itasca play Mexia in the belief that the later is the weakest club. He didn't say so much, but that's his idea, anyway. However, Weir is due for a rude awakening. Mexia has a strong squad in charge of Coach Potet, and is really much more to be feared than Belton.

In the meantime, the Bulldogs are now entering on the first stages of their intensive training. The work of Cuffy Lenoir in sticking to the grind is inspiring the whole outfit. Whether hitting the dummy, tackling, practicing formations, running signals, or scrimmage, Lenoir is always found in the vanguard and seems to be putting forth a wholesouled effort to come through. Lenoir is the best interference runner the Bulldogs boast and his willingness to use this

Sewanee opened its season last Saturday at home by defeating the Transylvania eleven by the score of 27 to 0. After playing their first three preliminary games at home with Transylvania, Southwestern Presbyterian and Carson-Newman, in order, they come to Texas for their first big game. That is their clash with the Texas Aggies at Dallas on Oct. 11.

Sewanee has certainly won the reputation of being the traveling Tigers. After meeting A. & M. at Dallas, they play Alabama at Birmingham, Ken-talent in demonstrating plays is proving of much assistance to Coach Mayhew.

tucky at Lexington, Oglethorpe at Atlanta, Mississippi at Memphis, South Carolina at Columbia and Vanderbilt at Nashville. Six separate southern states at week intervals. Some job for the railroads.

The Texas Aggies led the Southwestern Conference teams in opening the season by defeating John Tarleton at College Station last Saturday 40 to 0. Coach D. X. Bible has been wearing a long face all season, seems to be worried about getting his squad into first class running order by the time of the Tigers visit.

The Aggies meet Trinity at College Station next Saturday. Trinity promises to loom big on the horizon this season.

The Texas Longhorns will not meet Southwestern Wednesday, Sept. 24, as was announced on their schedule several weeks ago. But will open their season by playing the Pirates Saturday.

Speaking of individual players, Joe Potter, the field general of the Westminster squad is one of the best quarters in Junior College football.

Elmore Angel, the 200 pound center for the Wildcats has been a star on several gridirons before coming to the college on the hill. He is in good condition and there is no reason for him not having the best year of his career.

Coach Potet is putting the final touches on the High School squad, they have had some good coaching and a two weeks start on most of their opponents.

The Coach of the Coledge squad has been asked for a report on his team but so far has not made a reply, wonder what he has in store for our Black Cats.

Friday is the opening of the season in Mexia, let us make it a record gate for the Black Cats. They have a team that is going to be hard to beat, and are meeting some mighty good opponents. The game starts at 3:45.

The coaches at the S. M. U. camp are all getting grey headed trying to find someone to fill the center position. Wilton Daniels, Captain to the Southwestern champions of last season was too frail to play in most of the games, and his place was filled by Buddy King. Now they are both gone, losing an active player and a fine leader.

J. Sandford Smith left Tuesday morning for a trip through Western Texas on business.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING

The football season, or the athletic season of Limestone County Schools, gets under way in Mexia Friday and Saturday of this week. Fans are eager for the opening games at Nowlin park. School and College spirit are rising. The squads are training. Clean sport will be the order of the session.

The games, so far as their real purpose is concerned, are meetings of growing and developing youth, to demonstrate the ideal way in which contestants should deport themselves one toward another in a struggle of brain, body and spirit. All of these count. As Charlie Clover says: "Beef don't always win sporting contests." The spirit in which the game is played, by the participant and follower, has much to do, then brains come next. It is true that physical perfection is a great factor. Boys who would play the game successfully must keep their bodies clean, their lives pure and their habits above reproach.

A high moral code is acquired quite naturally by the playing of games, a code which so permeates the athletes consciousness that it extends not only to his behavior on the playing field but governs every act in private life. Surely if this is so, then adequate support should be accorded upon the part of the public, as the movement may be compared with any moral movement of modern times.

That sports have become a very important phase of American life is shown very aptly in the manner in which Americans apply sporting terms to express their moral standards. It is not the use of slang, whatever, but merely the use of sporting terms that have a real meaning, when one hears "Play the game," "Hold that line," "Stay in there, boy," and other similar phrases.

Two factors that are recognized as fostering the sporting ideal are, first, public opinion, which governs the conduct of the particular contest, not merely its rules but the manner in which it is played and secondly, the human desire to excel or win.

The football player must keep his temper. The public demands this. He must take his medicine, take a beating and a referee's decision in the right way, shake hands with his opponent with all that this action implies—whether for the sake of the team or the community or state. The desire to excel forces a youth to keep his body clean, his life pure and to acquire a pluck that enables him to make his decisions quickly and accurately.

The result is a sound moral training, and a sound moral training in precisely those qualities which are of service to the community. It entails the sacrifice of personal inclinations and interests—whether for the sake of the team, the community or the nation—a sacrifice for the lack of which democracy after democracy has perished in the past, and the true meaning of which the democracies of the present must learn if they are not, in their turn, to perish.

What results, then, in this direction, are to be attained this year depends upon the teams and their coaches. The Mexia High School, coached by Ernest H. Poteet and Westminster College, coached by C. L. Lewis, are indeed fortunate in having such splendid gentlemen directing the training of students on the field of sport. They know that the proof of the pudding is in the eating and every effort will be made to measure up to standards and to develop young fellows who will be impressed constantly with the fact that "When the great scorer comes to write across our names, he will not write whether we won or lost but how we played the game."

THE MEXIA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Among other worthy institutions Mexia has a Public Library.

Its value to the community depends upon the support of the local citizenship to those policies that have been found to be inseparably linked with a successful library.

Here are some questions which should be considered by the Mexia citizenship, in this connection:

1. Is the library reaching a greater number of its possible constituents? Is its roll of active borrowers increasing?

2. Is the average borrower using an increasing number of books each year?

3. Is the average borrower using the library for an enlarging range of book needs and interests? Is the library meeting the needs at a greater number of points?

4. Is the library meeting a higher order of needs and wants?

5. Is the library rendering an increased service in answering questions, providing definite information and supplying material for study or help in the actual problems of life?

6. Is it becoming an object of increasing pride and affection in the community?

7. Is there a growing appreciation of the importance and needs of skilled library service?

Mrs. Charles Alderman, the efficient librarian here, will deeply appreciate the earnest consideration on the part of the public of these questions that have been suggested for the citizens of the United States by the American Library Association.

The B'nai B'rith Messenger, a Jewish publication, recently made a strong appeal to the Jews to retain that "vitality," that "steadfast resistance" that has enabled them, as Theodore Roosevelt once said to sweep down through the ocean of time, like the cold stream, uncontaminated by the impurities of surrounding waters; that racial fealty that has caused them to resist down through the ages, "the most alluring forms of assimilation." It is indeed quite fitting that the Jewish publication which represents the Jewish viewpoint should come out boldly and advocate the continuation of a policy that has prevailed among members of that race for many momentous centuries. This is not bigotry or religious prejudice but is merely keeping the faith of the fathers.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

THE DIRECT PRIMARY

(From the Waco Times-Herald.)
The esteemed Houston Post-Dispatch has this discussion:

"The 'steamroller' tactics adopted at Austin were more amusing than impressive. It was merely following what has become a custom in Texas since the primary election system went into effect. Majorities not only ignore all minority rights in such conventions, but even go so far as to expel duly chosen delegates, or the committeemen selected by such districts as may be controlled by minority delegates. No genuinely representative convention would dare to trifle with the prerogative of the minority in this manner. Had such been attempted in New York, the party would have been split and all hopes of a democratic victory gone. But in a convention following a primary election, deprived of all authority that invests such a body with importance, where most of the proceedings may be designated as powwow and fustian, no harm is done. It is merely the victors hazing the losers in a one-party State. Don't attach too much importance to it."

The primary election system is a reversal of the whole order of correct political procedure. It diverts the people of the right of control. It is a direct contribution to unwholesome methods. It is the greatest piece of humbug ever foisted on a free people. It will require a political upheaval to get rid of it, for it is the delight of the professional politician.

Juniors Organize To Win Sponsor's Contest This Week

Thoroughly organized, "Travis for Sponsor" headquarters today are pushing the candidacy of their favorite and Junior class choice with a vim and enthusiasm which forebodes her success, according to J. D. Arrington, Jr., campaign manager and Elbert Wesson, in charge of the publicity bureau. Miss Mary Porter Travis has been selected by the Junior Class of the Mexia High School as the candidate of that class. She has the united support of the members who are determined to maintain the record established in two years of high school experience of winning every contest in which they have engaged. At least that is what certain Juniors say in speaking of the Sponsor contest. The object of the contest is to raise funds for high school athletics. The competition among the classes is keen and votes, purchased a penny a piece, are expected to augment the athletic exchequer considerably and thus provide means for the teams that are to represent old Mexia High this school session. The "Travis for Sponsor" campaign committee is composed of 10 committees, covering the entire school district and by which everyone in Mexia and surrounding district will be given a chance to help Miss Travis win.

Mrs. Robert Lewis led the round table discussion on "Flash lights from Africa," with Mde Tarbox, Stevens, Smith, Corley, Hayter, Smith, Watkins and Misses Khaul and Ward assisting.

Mrs. George Peyton and Roy Johanson gave a beautiful vocal duet, with Mrs. Sam Werner, accompanist.

Mrs. Sam Cox told of the thrilling experiences of missionaries in Africa.

Mrs. Wyatt Hayter rendered a beautiful piano solo.

Miss Phrona Ward gave a report on the two native missionaries which the First Methodist church of Mexia supports in Africa.

After being entertained by this instructive program, delightful refreshments of assorted sandwiches, hot tea and mints were served.

MY BEAUTY

Is All Due to Beauty Helps.

By Edna Wallace Hopper
I was a plain girl with little distinction. I made myself a famous beauty. Now, after 35 years as a stage star, I remain a beauty still. The thousands who see me daily on the stage know that I look 19.

When I was a girl, my rich mother took me on a world search for the supreme beauty helps. Those helps made me famous. Since then I have kept in touch with every new discovery. I have made many trips to France. So what I am and what I am are due to scientific help.

Now women have convinced me that I should share these helps with others. Millions of girls and women want what I have gained. So I have combined all the helps I have discovered in four preparations, with 32 ingredients. And I have arranged so that all druggists and toilet counters offer them to all who wish.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. Lucie Lantolme, the famous Parisian beauty, first told me what it did. Now great beauty experts the world over are advising this formula. No other cleanser which man has discovered does what this cleanser does.

My Facial Youth contains no animal, no vegetable fat. It cannot in any way assimilate with the skin. It simply cleans to the depths, then departs. All the grime, dead skin and clogging matter comes out with it.

That is the first beauty essential—an utterly clean skin. But I never dreamed what a clean skin meant until I found this Facial Youth.

Now Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. The cost is 75c.

Write me for my Beauty Book and I'll send with it something to please you. Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago. (Adv.)

TEACHERS FAVOR COUNTY AGENT AND DEMONSTRATOR

RESOLUTIONS ARE PASSED UPON WITH FAVOR AT MEET

The Limestone County Teachers who assembled in their annual institute at Groesbeck early in this month went on record as being in favor of a county Demonstration agent and County Farm agent, if the appointment of such could be found feasible by the Commissioners Court.

Representing more than one hundred schools in all parts of Limestone County, their resolution in that regard will likely prove very helpful to the County Court in making its decision in regard to the matter.

Eight various subjects were mentioned in the resolutions, which were unanimously adopted as submitted as follows:

Report of the Resolutions Committee.
We, the teachers of Limestone County, assembled in general session this the twelfth day of September, 1924 give expression to our thoughts and appreciation thru the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we publicly offer our thanks to the Chamber of Commerce, Lion's Club, and Ad Club, together with all other organizations and the citizens of Groesbeck who have so kindly contributed toward making our stay here pleasant, entertaining and profitable;

2. That we express our most sincere appreciation to Mr. Woodson for the efficient manner in which he has conducted this institute, and for the most beneficial lectures he has delivered. Also, we are indebted to Mr. Douglas, Mrs. Gordon, and Miss Patrick for their untiring efforts in giving such valuable instruction which have been so largely responsible for the great success of this institute;

3. That we are grateful to Reverend Travis for his inspiring messages as well as all others who made the program more interesting, enjoyable, and helpful, either by an address or musical selection;

4. That we heartily commend Mrs. Ferguson and the executive committee in providing such high class instruction and entertainment for the program;

5. That we unreservedly urge every teacher to affiliate themselves with, and to loyally support the Texas State Teachers Association and the Limestone County Educational Association. Furthermore, we recommend active participation on the part of all the schools to the limit of their capacity in the Interscholastic League contests;

6. That each and every teacher in Limestone County should acquaint themselves fully with the results and recommendations in the report of the recent survey made of Texas schools, and avail themselves of all opportunities to inform the public concerning the condition of our schools;

7. That copies of these resolutions be furnished the county Superintendent and the leading newspapers of the county for publication.

8. That the architect's assignment of offices in the new courthouse call for the placing of the county superintendent's office in the basement of the building, where the lighting and ventilation are bad, and dampness will exist, causing free textbooks stored there to mold, and Whereas, this office will probably be visited by more women than all the other offices put together, and is now occupied by a woman, therefore

Be it resolved that as a matter of consideration for the women of Limestone county, the teachers here assembled respectfully urge the Commissioners' Court to assign the county superintendent an office which will be free from the aforementioned objections.

Resolved, that the Limestone County Teachers Institute go on record as being in favor of a county demonstrator and county farm agent if the appointment of such be found feasible by the Commissioners' Court.

Respectfully submitted by the committee.

ALL DAY SERVICE HELD SUNDAY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HERE; NEXT SUNDAY TO BE VICTORY DAY

From early Sunday morning until late Sunday night there were continual services. The total number present at Sunday School was 419.

At the preaching hour great stress was put on the Synod, which will meet here October 8-13. Numbers of families indicated that they were willing and anxious to do all within their power to entertain the Synod in a very hospitable way.

After the pastor's sermon on consecration, about one hundred volunteered their services to assist in taking a religious census of Mexia. After this, there were three professions and two who united with the Church by letter. A lunch was served at the Church for all census takers. After the lunch Mr. Harper, who had charge of taking the census, gave instructions to all taking part. A number stayed at the Church and tabulated the reports as they came in.

At the evening service an Echo Service was held. A number expressed their surprise at the great opportunity for evangelistic and enlistment work in Mexia. The possibilities for the Baptist Church now total over 2,000. Some expressed their deep conviction that we should all "Arise and put on the whole armor of God," and go after the unsaved and unenlightened. Mrs. Paul B. Harper made a very earnest plea for the salvation and enlistment of the young people of Mexia. Mrs. J. E. Bolton stated that her heart was burdened to see such a large number of unenlightened Baptists. The pastor then made a very earnest plea for the Church to launch out into the deep for a victorious program for our Church, and the glory of our Saviour.

Two beautiful musical numbers were rendered. Mr. F. C. Scott rendered Johnson's "Face to Face," a beautiful Saxophone solo. Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Harper sang with deep emotion "It Pays to Serve Jesus." At the close of the service three came forward, trusting Christ as their Saviour, and three others to unite with the Church by letter.

At both services the Pastor urged all of his people to attend the evangelistic services now being held at the First Baptist Church.

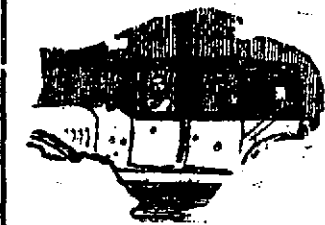

Next Sunday will be Victory Day at the Baptist Church, and a great program is being arranged. We are planning for 600 in Sunday School. Watch for the program in the best paper in Texas.—The Mexia Evening News.

D. S. S. PRESENTATION AT KANSAS CITY, MO.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 23.—Presentation of the D. S. C. to Luther Ruhl, World War veteran was to be the principal event on today's program of the Reserve Officers Association Convention here. Golf and polo matches as well as pistol shooting were included in the day's events.

At the Limestone County teachers Institute in Groesbeck, Mrs. Maud W. Gordon superintended the studies in intermediate work. Her addresses were much appreciated by the scores of teachers in the county who have children of intermediate years in their care. Miss Mamie Patrick of Denton likewise conducted the Primary studies.

TEXAS ASSOCIATION MEETING CALLED IN MEXIA SUNDAY

MANY IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO COME BEFORE SESSION

Telegrams were sent out by A. B. Johnson, of Marlin, President of the Texas Association, calling a meeting of officials of the six clubs comprising the league to be held at Mexia next Sunday.

Many important questions are to be brought before the body, it is understood.

This is President Johnson's first year as President and he has the co-operation, support and sympathy of citizens throughout the circuit, according to friends and fans here.

A meeting was called last Sunday at Waco, but owing to the absence of several officials of the various clubs, it had to be postponed. These were out of the state and presumably have returned, since the call was issued this morning.

The teams of the League are Austin, Waco, Marlin, Corsicana, Temple and Mexia. Representatives will be here from all points.

The telegram calling the meeting is as follows:

Marlin, Tex., 9:45 a. m. Sept. 24. DAILY NEWS.
A meeting of the Texas Association to be held at Mexia Sunday morning, September 28 at eleven o'clock. Was called today by A. B. Johnson, president of the league.

A. B. JOHNSON.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Limestone County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Harry Young and wife, Sarah E. Young, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Limestone County 87th Judicial District, to be holden at the courthouse thereof in Groesbeck, on the first Monday in November, 1924, the same being the 3rd day of November, 1924, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 4th day of August, A.D., 1924, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 4701-B, wherein Eliga Carter is plaintiff, and Harry Young and Sarah E. Young are defendants, said petition alleging that heretofore to wit on or about the first day of September 1922, the Defendants made, executed and delivered to plaintiff their joint promissory note for the sum of Fifteen Hundred Thirty and Forty Eight Hundredths Dollars ($1530.48) due and payable in monthly installments of Twenty five ($25.) Dollars each, the first installment being due and payable on or before the first day of October, 1922, and one installment to become due and payable on or before the first day of each succeeding month thereafter until the whole principal sum and interest is paid; said note being payable to the order of the plaintiff at the rate of 10% per annum from date until paid, and stipulating for 10% of the amount of the principal and interest then due as attorney's fees in case suit is brought on same or is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, whereby the Defendants and each of them became bound and liable to pay and promise to pay to plaintiff the sum of money in said note specified, together with all interest and attorney's fees due thereon according to the tenor and effect thereof.

Said note was given for a part of the purchase money of the following described real estate and premises situated in the city of Mexia, Limestone County, Texas, to-wit:

Lot 3 in subdivision A in Division 41, as shown by the Recorded Map of the City of Mexia, Texas.

That said property was heretofore to wit on the first day of September, 1922, conveyed by plaintiff to Defendants by his deed of writing of that date, in consideration, among other things, of the note herein described, and that in said deed of conveyance a lien was reserved thereon to secure the payment of said note, that said note and the installments thereon are due and unpaid, the last installment amounting to Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars having been paid on or about June 1st, 1923, and no other payments or installments have been made since that time by the Defendants or either of them, or by any one on their behalf, the often requested so to make such payments.

The said note has been placed in the hands of W. T. Church, attorney, for collection, and plaintiff has contracted to pay him 10% attorney's fees stipulated therein, the same being the reasonable and usual and customary fee.

Wherefore, the plaintiff prays the court that the Defendants and each of them be cited to appear and answer this petition, that he have judgement for his debt, interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit, and for the foreclosure of his lien on the above described land and premises, and the same be decreed to be sold according to law; that the sheriff or other officer executing said order of sale, shall place the purchaser of said property sold under said order of sale in possession thereof, within thirty (30) days after the day of the sale and for such other and further relief special and general, in law and in equity, that he may be justly entitled to, etc.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness Johnson Wakefield, Clerk of the District Court of Limestone County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, in the city of Groesbeck, this 9 day of Sept., A. D. 1924.

What They Said Was Not Printable

(By United Press)
AMARILLO, Sept. 24.—It is all right for picknickers to eat their lunch around a campfire, but when it comes to wheeling the blaze into a newly constructed school building—it is too much.

Pleasure seekers located the Soncy school house near here as their site to eat. Light was furnished by loading a steel wheel barrow with building waste and firing it in the middle of the room.

CRIPPLED GIANTS FEEL CERTAIN OF SUCCESS IN RACE

(By United Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Crippled and torn from their hardest fight in four years, New York Giants have reached the point where they seem reasonably certain of winning the National League pennant.
It was plainly apparent in the actions of the Pittsburgh Pirates at the Polo Grounds yesterday that they felt the same way about it and that it didn't seem to make much difference what happened to them.
Jimmy O'Connell knocked in two runs with his first homer of the season and Rabbit Maranville who played erratically in the Brooklyn series, heaved a wild one to the plate and presented the Giants with some more runs.
The Giants increased their lead over the Brooklyn Robins to a little more than a full game while the Robins were beating the runners up. Dizzy Vance, greatest pitcher of the year, lost a tough one. He allowed only four hits in ten innings, but he threw three home run balls and blew the game.
With the Giants ahead of the Robins and two and a half games in front of the Pirates, the champions have an easier way now to a new baseball record of four pennants in succession. Frisch, Groh and Meusel, three regulars, are out of the line-up but McGraw has so many capable reserves that they may not be missed. Lindstrom and O'Connell, two substitutes practically won the game when they got the first two hits off Meadows yesterday and scored two runs which were enough to win the game.
The Giants have five more games to play, the Robins have three and the Pirates seven. If the Giants win four out of their five remaining games they will win the pennant even if the Robins win their three games. The Pirates would have to win their seven games to finish in a tie if the champions win three out of their five games.
The Senators and the Yankees won their games yesterday and the situation remained unchanged in the American League with the Washington club leading by two full games.

2,000 Baptists In Mexia Census Taken Last Sunday Shows

According to Paul B. Harper, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church here, the results of the religious census taken of the Mexia community Sunday, by teams that went out from the church immediately after noon, indicated that there are 2,000 men, women and children in this city with Baptist inclinations, in the church and out. The membership of the church now is over 800. This means he says, that there are 1200 other Baptists in town and a vigorous campaign will be put on immediately to line these people up with those on the rolls already, making this one of the strongest churches in the state.

World Disarmament Aided By Germany In Entering L. N.

(By United Press)
GENEVA, Sept. 24.—The cause of world disarmament under the auspices of the League of Nations has been immeasurably advanced by Germany's decision to enter the League at an early date, leaders of all delegates, including even the French, declared today.

The moment was most opportune, League spokesmen said.
Inclusion of the late enemy in the general arbitration-security-disarmament pact now being prepared will increase immensely the chances for its success, it is felt.

PEOPLE DON'T AD- MIRE ROUGH, PIMPLY SKIN

Before you can impress some one of the opposite sex enough to get them to share the happy state of love with you, you certainly must keep your appearance pleasing and attractive. Pimples, blotchy, eczemic skin seems ten times worse to strangers and new acquaintances. And even husbands, wives, parents and kin feel sorry for loved ones who suffer from such skin diseases.
The way to get rid of all these drawbacks to affection and devotion from dear ones is to use Black and White Ointment, and Soap, like thousands of people are doing. They are economically priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size Black and White Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap.—(Adv.)

COLLEEN MOORE BEST "TOMBOY" ON SCREEN

Rodolph Valentino can claim the title, "The screen's greatest lover." Norma Talmadge is accorded the distinction of being the greatest of all emotional actresses.

To William S. Hart goes the title, "The screen's greatest portrayer of Western roles."

But to Colleen Moore must go the title—"The screen's one and only tomboy."

Miss Moore stands so far ahead of her competitors for this distinction that there is really no competition at all.

She has been "tomboying" it almost since her advent into films five years ago. She has been a "tomboy" representative of almost every nationality. She was "tomboy" Irish in "Come on Over," and an Indian "tomboy" of the consequences of the club women of the county taking an interest in the activities of and pertaining to the school and child welfare.

Collections being made by local banks indicate a desire on the part of the farmers to liquidate their indebtedness and a healthy condition is apparent, in spite of the fact that everyone now concedes the 1924 cotton yield somewhat less than that gathered last year. The price, too is less than was being paid for the staple at this date 1923. Many farmers who are able to do so are holding a part of their crop, believing that an upward trend will come about the first of the year in the face of a thirteen-million bale crop and a very small surplus carried over.
